ACCESS FEES

Effective April 1, 2010

The San Diego History Center (SDHC) retains all rights to reproduction. Permission for publication is granted for one-time, non-exclusive use and only for the expressed purpose described in the contract. Any subsequent use or change in use constitutes re-use and must be applied for in writing. Access fees are per reproduction and in addition to the production charge.

All reproductions must be credited as follows: San Diego History Center in a caption or credit. Credits should appear in close proximity to the image or in a special section devoted to credits. Altering the original image beyond standard cropping requires written permission. These changes must be indicated in the accompanying caption. Applicant agrees to provide the SDHC Library with one copy of the work containing the reproduction. *Non-profit refers to an organization able to demonstrate 501 C (3) not-for-profit status.

OUTSIDE PRODUCTION ACCESS FEES: Photographic negatives or scans sent to outside vendors for production or scans of photographs sent to commercial customer.
